Great cruise.

15 Nov 2018

My wife and I went to the Rosa Cruise offices in Hanoi for the scheduled departure of 7:30 as our hotel was not in the central area but did not actually leave until 8:00 so rushed for no reason. The mini bus was also very cramped. Once we got to the boat everything else was fantastic. We stayed three days which was well worth the extra day. We felt that day 1 was little rushed and day 2 was more relaxed. The tour guides were great. There was plenty of food available at every meal with lots of dishes that I would never had tried if I were in a restaurant. Being a small boat it was more intermate and so much easier to meet new people. People that we will keep in contact with when we get home. Highlights were the caves, kayaking and swimming all on the second day. The pearl farm I felt was possibly a money spinner and I'm sure the cruise companies get a percentage and it was very commercial. Overall it was an amazing experience which we will never forget so well worth it.

Great stay on the bay!
